Stephen Yablon Architect

Yablon Wins in Boston

NYC-based Stephen Yablon Architect was awarded first place in the open competition for the Boston Harbor Park Pavilion on the new Rose Kennedy Greenway along the Boston waterfront. The jury called the design an "elegant yet simple proposal for a shimmering glass box that successfully integrates information technology into its architecture." In addition to a $10,000 cash prize, SYA will be offered the opportunity to design the project. Construction is slated for completion in 2007. Fellow NY'er Rogers Marvel Architects brought home an honorable mention. Click on link to review all the winners.
